But here I am."*

Pearl, Masha and Edlin are trying to move on. A simple life by the sea is all they need to forget their pasts.

But when a mysterious visitor is washed up, she brings with her a dark history that threatens their new way of life. A decision must be made. Let her stay or make her swim?

Written by Zawe Ashton, Clean Break's Resident Playwright, this is a chance to see theatre performed by emerging artists from Clean Break's education programme.
